

South Wilts Virus Group Meeting

Oxford Brookes University, Gipsy Lane campus

24th May 2018

- 12pm Registration & buffet lunch, tours offered of Bioimaging facility (SBF-SEM)
- 1pm Welcome - introduction & housekeeping Linda King/Robert Possee
- 1.10pm Characterization of a persistent baculovirus infection established in an insect cell line.
Raquel Arinto Garcia and Carina Bannach, Dept Biological and Medical Sciences, OBU
- 1.40 pm Archaeogenetic models of human-disease interaction in deep time.
Simon Underdown, Dept of Social Sciences, OBU
- 2.10pm Coffee break
- 2.30pm Development and characterisation of BacMAM vectors for expression of protective genes in human pancreatic islet cells: Towards a therapy for type 1 diabetes mellitus.
Mine Aksular, Oxford Expression Technologies
- 3pm HERV-K: Harmless hitchhiker or genomic rogue?
Ravinder Kanda, Dept Biological and Medical Sciences, OBU
- 3.30pm The development of a rat challenge model for HCV vaccine development using a newly discovered rodent hepacivirus
Peter Simmonds and Erwan Atcheson, Nuffield Department of Medicine, University of Oxford
- 4pm Close